SPARDI GRAS PLANS GOING AHEAD; NEW DEVELOPMENTS FOR CARNIVAL COMMITTEES

Spardi Gras committee chairman have released the names of students who will help with various phases of the spring carnival.

George Milias, general chairman, says, "In choosing Spardi Gras committees, all volunteers were accepted and encouraged. I believe that the choice of committees represents a good cross-section of all groups and interests on campus."

Under Dan Haley, sub-chairman, is the construction committee. Dick Payne and Moe Richardson are co-chairmen assisted by Bud Hooton, Jerry Swanner, Jim Phelps, and Fred Bonar. Organizations helping are Spartan Knights, Alpha Phi Omega, and Mu Delta Pi.

JUDGES

Wesley Nunes is in charge of procuring judges for the afternoon contests. Stephen Voorhees heads the committee handling running of the contests. Aiding her will be Joan Schwartz, Beverly Davis, Jane Potter, Jim Daly, John Boldemann, and Kenny Calhoun.

EMCEES CHOSEN

This year's Spardi Gras afternoon and evening programs will be conducted by a team of emcees to make the procedure different from past years.

Carmendale Fernandes, chairman of the entertainment committee, and her assistants picked four men from those interviewed for the position.

Bill Ellsworth and Howard Slatoff will conduct contests and award prizes, comment on events and happenings of the day on the stage erected for the afternoon program.

Howard Lynch and Gerald Rizzuto will team up to supervise the entertainment presented for bean feed customers in the outer quad.

Ellsworth and Rizzuto are local talent. Lynch hails from Palo Alto, and Slatoff is New York City's gift to San Jose State college.

Musicians, dancers, actors, trapeze artists, tight-rope artists, or any talent suitable for the programs that the masters of ceremonies will conduct, will have a chance to try out Wednesday and Thursday at 3 o'clock in the Catholic Women's Center.

SHAVE HOLIDAY

Men!! Would you like an excuse to lay down that razor and brush for 24 days without fearing criticism and cold glances from the coeds? Then, sign up for Spardi Gras "whiskerino" contest Friday.

On the day of the spring carnival, prizes will be given for all phases of beard growth. The longest, heaviest, most unique, all will be considered for prize material.

There should be a good turnout this year, due to the increased enrollment of men. And the gals can't say anything because all contestants will be contributing to the success and enjoyment of Spardi Gras.

Women will also have a chance to make the first peace-time Spardi Gras in five years as fun-filled a day as it should be—and was in the past.

Signups for the annual long-fingernail contest will be at the same time as the Whiskerino. Nails will be measured Spardi Gras afternoon. The prizes will go to the student with the longest distance from end of finger to tip of nail.

STATE VICTORIOUS SPARTAN THINCLADS DEFEAT SANTA BARBARA, SAN DIEGO

San Jose State's bevy of thinclads continued their winning ways Saturday when they scored a double victory over Santa Barbara College and San Diego State, 90-41 and 83½ to 47½ in a triangular affair held in Santa Barbara Saturday afternoon. Santa Barbara College edged out San Diego State by a 69½ to 60½ margin.

San Jose's Don Smalley was the only two-time winner of the afternoon as he streaked to the tape in both the century and the 220 with times of 10 flat and 22.2 seconds. Santa Barbara's Wallace Cole fared almost as well, however, as he gained first place splits in the high jump and the mile events.

LONG TOSS

Most outstanding mark of the day was compiled when Bob Likins, the blond huskey, unreeled a javelin throw of 200 feet, 3½ inches. This has been the best throw of the season in competition for Likins, former national J. C. champ in this event.

Norm Hatley, although being tied for first place, turned in his best mark of the year as he leaped an even six feet in the high jump, while Tom Birmingham and Nowels finished one-two in the high sticks.

KNOWLES WINS

Thelno Knowles, San Jose's ace middle distance man, took the half mile event handily as Ernie Ribera pushed him in the third slot.

Other first place winners for San Jose included Billy Rhyne in the low barriers, Overhouse in the discus, and the mile relay team composed of Ribera, Birmingham, Blackwell, and Knowles.

Freshman Picnic Tickets on Sale At Library Arch

If you've noticed a lot of people wandering around the campus lately with that "gee, it's spring" air, and an eager look on their faces, the chances are they are freshmen, dreaming of the good time to come at the Frosh picnic Friday at Alum Rock park.

Tickets are on sale this week at the Library arch for 50 cents. The price includes eating, games, dancing, and what promises to be perfect weather for a picnic, say committee members.

According to Bruce McNeil, class president, the food will start with hot dogs and potato salad, and end up with ice cream and cokes. However, he asks that freshmen buy their tickets as soon as possible, so the food committee may have plenty of food on hand for everyone.

The picnic will last from 5 until 11 o'clock. It will be for members of the class of '49 and their guests.

Chamber Music Set for May 10

The eleventh annual Evening of Chamber Music, under the direction of Miss Frances Robinson, violin and viola teacher at San Jose State, will be presented Friday evening, May 10, in the Little Theater.

This year's program will consist entirely of numbers which will be heard for the first time in San Jose. The music will consist of two groups; the classic period and the contemporary period.

Miss Robinson states that these programs have given the people of this community an opportunity of hearing works which are seldom done except by professional groups.

A Handel Concerto Grosso No.

21 and the "Baccherini Violoncello Concerto in B flat" (first movement) will comprise the first group.

The modern period will consist of Samuel Barber's "Adagio for Strings," the Milhaud String Quartet's, "Serenade for Flute and Strings" by Stanley Hollingsworth, a former student of San Jose State. The group will close with "Suite for Strings" by Alexander Semmler.

Stanley Hollingsworth, a talented pianist and composer, has been a scholarship pupil in composition of Darius Milhaud, French composer who is on the music staff at Mills college. Milhaud's string quartet will perform earlier on the program. The "Serenade for Flute and Strings," one of the numbers to be played on the program, was presented on a program at Mills college last summer. It is dedicated to Frances Robinson.

The soloist of the evening will be Betty Barbour Dexter, cellist and teacher of cello at San Jose State. According to Miss Robinson, Mrs. Dexter and her husband, who is now in Japan, are well-known artists in this region.

Miss Robinson said that the "Baccherini Concerto for Violoncello is well suited to Mrs. Dexter's beautiful tone and facile technique.

The program will be open to the public without charge.

With a long list of returning veterans to work on, Coach Ed Rudloff expects to have on of the strongest teams on the Pacific Coast next fall. Rudloff heads a list of old State swimmers, including Marty Taylor, Del Armstrong, Doug Bacon and Scoot Thompson, together with many newcomers.

Acting coach in the absence of Charles Walker, Rudloff brings to San Jose a great wartime record. Winner of the outstanding swimmer award in the India-Burma swim meet in Agra, India, last year and holder of several Calcutta regional tournament records, Rudloff also led the Royal Calcutta Swim club and the Victoria Memorial Swim club to water polo titles while stationed near Calcutta with the Air Transport Command.

Already signed for the first practice session are such former stars as Leon Sparrow, Frank Goulette, Dick Anderson, Cecil Dombalian, Tudor Bogart, Moe Richardson, Everett Olsen and Warren Kleist.

Spartan Daily, PE Majors, Hank's All Stars and Gamma Phi Sigma were all victorious in Friday's softball "openers."

The defending champions, Spartan Daily, defeated Theta Mu Sigma 13-7 in a wild and wooly ball game. Going into the final canto, last year's champs had a 13-3 advantage, but by virtue of some loose fielding, Theta Mu loaded the bases with two out; and Ken Edwards, Theta Mu's third sacker, smashed out a home run to give his teammates their final four runs.

ALL STARS DEFEAT VARSITY HOUSE

Hank Ruiz's All Stars knocked over the Varsity House entry by an 8-3 score behind the steady pitching of Hank Ruiz. The Varsity House started to make a ball game of it in the later innings, but the All Stars had built up too big a lead.

CAST IS COOL AS THEY WAIT BEHIND SCENES

unusual coolness while waiting to go into their acts. No evidence of tension; instead there was a spirit of gaiety and relaxation as the performers danced with each other and read the daily funnies.

Miss Mary Wiley, the director of the production, expresses her appreciation for the faithfulness of the cast, the faculty, sororities, and those who handled decorations.

The brilliant success of the show is partly due to the ability of Miss Wiley for her expert handling of more than 65 swimmers.
